Compromise between L. A. McAfee, Admr & heirs of G Grogan

State of Georgia } Gwinnett County } We the undersigned heirs of Garlan Grogan Dec'd late of Said County & State being of full age agree in view of the many difficulties attending the management of said estate: owing to the late war and the burning of the records agree to compromise our claim with L A McAfee, Administrator of said G Grogans Estate, we being fully Satisfied from his Sharing, that he has fully paid up each of us our Shares in said estate by former returns, and those vouchers he has now in hand, and he turning over to us the notes & accounts belonging to said Estate formally in his hands. Therefore we being fully Satisfied of all demands against L A McAfee, Admr & direct that the Suit brought by us in the Court of Ordinary against said Admr be dismissed we being fully Satisfied &c. The Ordinary will grant letters of Dismission to said Administrator on said Estate we having rec'd and entered into the foregoing arrangement of our own accord & free will. This Jany 24th 1872

This exception in favor of the Exrs. arises from the fact that no regular account has been kept by the Exrs. of the rents and profits arising from the farm, as they have deemed it their duty, under the Will, only to keep such accounts as would enable them to show from whence come the money to pay the indebtedness of Decand, and believing the Will would soon do this - therefore kept no regular account of farm products

The lands belonging to the Estate of said Decd. were sold according to the forms and requirements of law on the first Tuesday in December 1874. for cash, and were purchased by Daniel J Liddell at the price of Four thousand five hundred Dollars ($4500.00). All the personal property belonging to said estate has been heretofore regularly Administered and Disbursed according to law, and proper returns thereof made to the Court of Ordinary, the records whereof have been destroyed by the burning of the Court-house, on account of which, these Admrs. are unable to present a consolidated Return.

Georgia } Personally this day comes, Thomas W Liddell Gwinnett County } Admr. on the estate of Moses W Liddell, dec. who being sworn, says the foregoing return is just, true and correct to the best of his knowledge and belief.
Sworn to and subscribed

Fulton County } one hundred & twenty five 45/100 dollars the day furnished to us by A K Seago, Merchant, doing business in the city of Atlanta, we the undersigned Farmers, residing in the county of Fulton hereby Promise and bind ourselves, jointly and severally, to pay to said Seago, or his assigns, on the 1st day of January 1873 at the office of the Georgia Banking Trust company in Atlanta the said sum of one hundred & twenty five 45/100 Dollars; the same to bear interest, at the rate of 10 per cent. Per annum, from this date, if not punctually paid at maturity; and in case the said Seago or his assigns, should, by reason of any default or breach of contract by us, incur cost, attorneys fees, or other expenses such cost, fees and expences are to be borne or refunded by us, and be recoverable with the Principal and interest of this obligation; we hereby promising and binding ourselves, jointly and severally, to pay the same, in order to indemnify and save harmless the said Seago and his assigns against all loss or damage in consequence of such default or breach of contract.

For better Securing said Principal, interest, cost, fees and expences, we hereby, jointly and severally, allow, create and give a Lien to the said Seago and his assigns upon all of our Stock, and upon our entire crops, whilst growing, and after grown and gathered, on our farms in the County of Gwinnett, for the year 1872. And upon our entire crops of each and every subsequent year, so long as any part of this obligation, or of any judgment or Execution founded thereon, shall remain unsatisfied.
And we further contract and agree to hold our said crops as the bailee of the said Seago and his assigns, until full satisfaction hereof shall be made. And, moreover, that in case we should attempt to sell any portion of said crops, before the day above appointed for the maturity of this obligation, then the Principal, with interest thereon from date, at the above mentioned rate, shall become due and payable on the day of such attempt, and Proceedings may be at once commenced to enforce the Lien.
