We could not add new jurors. The September 2021 Term after the original jury selec-tion. This left us with some the Gwinnett County rand Jury, Panel B con-sted of the following difficulty in ensuring that we had 16 members to do business on some dates as well as starting late a few times. Our Alternates became full Greg Fey, FOREPERSON Afua Osei-Akoto, CLERK Tracy Stevens-Washing-ton, DEPUTY CLERK members and expected to attend each date. The lan-guage barrier should be stressed more intently at the original selection, and that it be made more clearly that regular attendance of the meetings is fully expected. In addition, we believe that the pay of $30 a day might be impacting those who were not showing up to serve. We suggest increasing the daily pay to improve the commitment of some ju-

More positive Police-Community interactions will increase trust and encourage some victims of crimes to clude ways to make available resources known. We also believe that more funds should be allocated to prop erly compensating, retain and increasing our police forces throughout the count۷.

We see there is a large amount of crime around ho-tels and extended stay motels. If more money is allo cated for a larger presence to patrol and more video/surveillance camaras around these extended stay motels, we should be able to decease crimes in these ardecease crimies in these acas. Having these additional resources may discourage people who are travelling to stop in our community. In addition, it would be beneficial for the State of Georgia to require license plates be displayed on the front of all vehicles, not just in the rear This way cars can be more easily identified.

The presentation we received regarding the gang situation in Gwinnett left us all feeling that much more needs to be done to educate and inform parents, school children, school staff as well as our community regarding gang activities and drug use We should work with ou schools to have presenta presenta tions and conversations not only about gangs and drugs but how to successfully but how to leave gangs or who to reach out to if someone needs re-
