If you fail to appear, the court can termined your rights in your absence. If the court at the trial finds that the facts set out in the petition to terminate parental rights are true and that ter-mination of your rights will serve the best interests of your child(ren), the court can enter a judgment ending your rights to your child (ren).

If the judgment terminates your parental rights, you will no longer have any rights to your child(ren). This means that you will not have the right to visit, contact, have custody of your common or make any decisions and the contact of th (ren) or make any decisions affecting your child(ren) or your child(ren)?s earnings or property. Your child(ren will be legally freed to be adopted by someone else.

Even if your parental rights are terminated You will still be responsible for providing financial sup-port (child support pay-ments) for your child(ren)?s care unless and until your child(ren) is/are adopted;

Your child(ren) can still inherit from you unless and until your child(ren) is/are adopted.

This is a very serious mat ter. You should contact an attorney immediately so that you can be prepared for the court hearing. You have the right to hire an attorney and to have him or her represent you. If you cannot afford to will appoint an attorney if the court will appoint an attorney if the court finds that you are an indigent person. Whether or indigent person. Whether of not you decide to hire an atflot you declute to fill e all at-torney, you have the right to attend the hearing of your case, to call witnesses on your behalf, and to question those witnesses brought against you.
