You have the right to hire an attorney and to have him or her represent you. If you cannot afford to hire an attorney, the court will appoint an attorney if the court finds that you are an indigent person. Whether or not you decide to hire an attorney, you have the right to attend the hearing of your case, to call witnesses on your behalf, and to question those witnesses brought against you.

Whose petition to legitimate is subsequently dismissed for failure to prosecute; or

Whose petition to legitimate does not result in a court order finding that he is the legal father of the child(ren) named in a petition brought pursuant to this article.
