30091 an answer in writing within sixty (60) days of the date of the Order of Publication. If you do not file an answer, Georgia law provides that you can permanently claim to rights as a parent regarding Petitioner's two minor children. If you fail to appear, the court can declare that you are not the biological and legal father of these two minor children in your absence. If the court at trial finds that the facts set out in the petition to end the legal relationship between you and Petitioner's minor children are true and that the declaration that you are not the biological and legal particular that the declaration that you are not the biological and legal particular that it is not entirely and the second that the seco ent will serve the best interests of the minor children. the court can enter a judo ment declaring that you are not the biological and legal parent and overcoming any presumption. If the judgement does so, you will no longer have any rights re-garding the minor children. This means that you will not have the right to visit, contact, or have custody of the minor children or make any decisions affecting the minor children or their earnings or property. The minor children will be legally freed to be legitimized or adopted by someone else with Petition-
